EAST LONDON NURSING SOCIETY

The East London Nursing Society is celebrating its centenary with a meeting to honour the pioneers of district nursing in East London. The meeting, at Queen Mary College, Mile End Road, London, E.1., on Tuesday 23 April at 3 p.m., will be chaired by Eleanor, Lady Nathan (president of the Society) and the chief speaker will be Miss E. J. Merry (retired general superintendent of the Queen's Institute). Tickets may be obtained from Miss H. R. Clark, 7 Stainsby Road, Limehouse, E.14.

On the evening of the same day, 23 April, a reunion of past and present staff will be held at the Nurses' Home, 7 Stainsby Road, Limehouse E.14, when a cordial welcome will be extended to all.

In connection with this centenary, the London Borough of Tower Hamlets is arranging an exhibition on the History of Nursing, at the Central Library, Bancroft Road, London E.1., from 23 March to 23 April.

RSH CONGRESS

The annual Royal Society of Health congress and exhibition will take place in Eastbourne from 29 April to 3 May. Mr Anthony Greenwood, Minister of Housing and Local Government, will give the opening address. Subjects to be discussed include security precautions for drugs, cancer, prevention of mental disorder, mass screening, occupation health, housing and the homeless. The congress fee is eight guineas.

Full details are available from The Secretary, The Royal Society of Health, 90 Buckingham Palace Road, London S.W.1.

ADMINISTRATION

The Scottish Branch of the Queen's Institute announces a course in administration to be held at Baird Hall, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, from 1 to 5 July. Dr Stuart MacRae, of the University's Department of Administration, is organising the course.

The course fee is £20, and in addition accommodation can be arranged for students who wish to be resident.

Further details will be available later, but meanwhile those interested are asked to inform: The Superintendent, Q.I.D.N. Scottish Branch, 26 Castle Terrace, Edinburgh 1.
